Andy Gibb, Desire

Ah.... Ah....
We may be big or small or black or white , eternally
And black and white is you and me in a special light
We may be young or old or in between ,but this much I know
Together we can learn to grow
In a world that's ever turning it's back on you If you give it all away , make it mine ,ine , ine , mine
You are desire , everything you need
I give you right or wrong
And you are the woman that I base my whole existence on And when I get to you my desire is glowing in your light

These are the golden years we get to live we lead the way, tomorrow we can start today in a special light Love could be good or bad or in between but this much I learn Baby , you and I can learn In a world that's rearranging it's reality If you give it all away make it mine, ine, ine, mine You are desire, everything you need I give you right or wrong And you are the woman that I base my whole existence on And when I get to you my desire is glowing in your light And it's nice to light a fire when it's cold outside If you give it all away make it mine, ine, ine, mine You are desire, everything you need I give you right or wrong And you are the woman that I base my whole existence on And when I get to you my desire is glowing in your light
