

Andy McCoy, Foxfield Junction

Take me train
Take me out of Houston
Station train
Take me cross the nation
Take me back
Back to Fox Field Junction train
Different Land
A Different Day
He would take my hand
And he would say I Love You
Back in Fox Field Junction
Why did I say goodbye
Why did I make
A young boy cry
Where did I go
Where did I go wrong
Why did I say
We must part
Why did I break
A young boy's heart
Why did I do
The things that I've done
