

Andy McCoy, Strung Out

Baby don't disregard the fact you'll always see me running back it makes no difference what you do I'll always stay strung out over you and there might be talk all over town about some other guys around still makes no difference what you do I'm forever strung out over you

All my friends think I'm a fool Yeah they call this self abuse but how can they know 'bout love that's truth they've never been in love with you the clocks ticking on the wall I fear you won't come home at all but I stay waiting by your door I just want more and more and more

The only thing that I ever wanna do Is to get strung out over you no there is nothing in the world I'd rather do than stay strung out over you

My heart's a blaze I'm in a mist I've never been in love like this your presence liquid like the sea Embracing me eternally
So please take some time to face the truth
I am so strung out over you

Baby don't disregard the fact

It's that little bit of magic deep inside of your heart keeps me strung out over you It's that little bit of magic
deep inside of your heart
that keeps me strung out over you helps me pull through and through... keeps me strung out over you an'you and only you
