Angel Nation, Burn The Witch

Cold revenge, it burns like gasoline Hunted down, punished for eternity

There was nowhere to hide, the crown was shining in her head Echoes of the voice whispering "shelter me" Shelter me

Tainted eyes, just a runaway Hear the cry: shelter me Godless child falling at your feet Crying, oooo, shelter me

Ask for mercy and you might stay alive Stuck in silence in the gravity of the mind

She can do no wrong, when nothing that she does is right With the muted sound begging "shelter me" Shelter me

Tainted eyes, just a runaway Hear the cry: shelter me Godless child falling at your feet Crying, oooo, shelter me

Burn, burn... Burn, burn... Burn, burn... Burn, burn...

Tainted eyes, just a runaway Hear the cry: shelter me Godless child falling at your feet Crying, oooo, shelter me

Tainted eyes, just a runaway Hear the cry: shelter me Godless child falling at your feet Crying, oooo, shelter me shelter me
