Angel, Wonderful

verywhere we go it feels like we?re strangers
On the other hand it makes us feel major
If they never knew then maybe they?ll name ya
Don?t let ?em change ya

When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful

It?s so wonderful

Exhale, breathing
Let yourself go for the evening
Break out, screaming
You can lose your voice if you mean it
Can?t control the feelin?
And I can?t let go I need it

Everywhere we go it feels like we?re strangers
On the other hand it makes us feel major
If they never knew then maybe they?ll name ya
Don?t let ?em change ya

When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful

If you?re looking for the stars keep looking at me hard
If you?re looking for the stars keep looking at me hard

When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful

Inhale, steamin?
We can blow it up for the weekend
Shallow world meet him ___ in the deep end
Can?t control the feelin?
And I can?t let go I need it

Everywhere we go it feels like we?re strangers
On the other hand it makes us feel major
If they never knew then maybe they?ll name ya
Don?t let ?em change ya

When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful

If your looking for the stars keep looking at me hard
If your looking for the stars keep looking at me hard

When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful

It?s so wonderful

Everywhere we go it feels like we?re strangers
On the other hand it makes us feel major
If they never knew then maybe they?ll name ya
Don?t let ?em change ya

When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
When you finally find what?s beautiful
It?s so wonderful
