

Angela McCluskey, Perfect Girl Eleven

All hail the Virgin Mary
Whatever happened to her?
Dark sails upon her black seas
She be heaven on earth
Ooh, there's perfect girl eleven
In the swimsuit test
Ooh, there's perfect girl eleven
In the blood-red dress
What a life, what a life
What a life, what a life
What a love with murderous intent
Don't stumble, don't fumble
Pick a spider from the web
Hot tail and runway action
Reception's getting worse
Short males beyond distraction
Maybe she'll be the first girl on the moon
There's perfect girl eleven
In the swimsuit test
Ooh, there's perfect girl eleven
In the blood-red dress
What a life, what a life
What a life, what a life
What a love with murderous intent
Don't stumble, don't fumble
Pick a spider from the web
Ooh, girl eleven
Ooh, girl eleven, you're in heaven
Come and raise your scepter high, high
There's perfect girl eleven
In the swimsuit test
Ooh, there's perfect girl eleven
In the blood-red dress
What a life, what a life
What a life, what a life
What a love with murderous intent
Don't stumble, don't fumble
Pick a spider from the web
Ooh, there's perfect girl eleven
Ooh, girl eleven
Ooh, there's perfect girl eleven
Ooh, girl eleven
What a life, what a life
What a life, what a life
Ooh, girl eleven
Ooh, girl eleven
