

Angels & Agony, Revelation

I am the night in which you sleep
I am the day in which you wake
I am the shade in which you hide
I tell the stories in your sleep
Whisper the words you cannot find
I am your forsaken mind

I am the light that shines on you
I am the dark you're going through
I am the prince in your dreams
I kiss the kiss you're longing for
And make you land just on your feet
I am the god you always need
