Live And Learn

[Music: Rafael Bittencourt and Kiko Loureiro / Lyrics: Rafael Bittencourt]

Remember the first time you've faced the dark

Why were you so afraid?

Hiding so many secrets inside

When fears have got to be tamed

I promise I'll still be there

To keep my promise

I'll still be there

To watch over dreams at night

And follow you through the day

You shot the doors but I'm right behind

Where shadows remain

I promise I'll still be there

To say I promise

I'll still be there

Don't ask me why we'll be like brothers

Skating on the ice of mortal loneliness

Live and learn with your mind

Find a way out of madness

You dream on (of) paradise

Who's gonna take you there
