

Angra, Storm of Emotions

Wake up my friend today life will show the answers
It's time for you to face the risk
Dark clouds will go away
Tame all your fears cause your mind can hide connections
And disturb the harmony
From your dramatic fate

Let it out! Let it go!
Grab the chances you've been waiting for so long
Let it out! Take control!
Find your way towards the places you belong

Wake up my friend you're in charge of your connections
It's time for you to face the day
Dark clouds have gone away...
All the paths you're unaware
Or maybe never seemed to care
The minute you wake up

Let it out! Let it go!
Grab the chances you've been waiting for so long
Let it out! Take control!
Find your way towards the places you belong

I'll wait till the storm of emotions changes tides
Afraid that the strong clouds of sorrow would haze my side
And blind my eyes

Let it out! Let it go!
Grab the chances you've been waiting for so long
Let it out! Take control!
Find your way towards the places you belong
