

Ania Teliczan, One True Lover

Gotta find one true lover
Saving my heart for you
Tell me we're meant for each other
That'll make me feel brand new

I used to pick the wrong kind of guy
Looking at his car as he's driving close
Pulling up to buy a thing or two
With the lousy money that bought me clothes
Then I caught him at the School one day
Flirting with the girls I knew
This is what made me crave a deeper friend
I had to escape his pursuit

Gotta find one true lover
Saving my heart for you
Tell me we're meant for each other
That'll make me feel brand new

When I thought I couldn't find a man
To fit the picture of faith i have
You showed up with a manner and grace
Restored the hope turning good from bad
No thought of losing out or being alone
No I have you by my side
Girls look and stare but I let them go
'Cause love doesn't need to hide.

Gotta find one true lover
Saving my heart for you
Tell me we're meant for each other
That'll make me feel brand new

I wanna know the deal
Is love fake or real?
It's time to push on through
Now, that I have you

Gotta find one true lover
Saving my heart for you
Tell me we're meant for each other
That'll make me feel brand new
