

Anita Baker, Perfect Love Affair

Uhhh uhhh

There's a picture in my memory
Of the day when we first met
When solo became duet

And the words you spoke compelled me
Yes your touch could tranquilize
These feelings I memorize

It's a perfect love affair
And so good to know when you need me
I'll be there
It's a perfect love affair
And so good to know that you love me and
You care, baby, you care

Now I welcome love's affliction
Though its symptoms I deny
Contention, we harmonize

Yes a heart of ice was melted
And the mountains they did move
Baby, you've nothing left to prove

'Cause it's a perfect love affair
And so good to know that you love me and
You care
It's a perfect love affair
And so good to know that you love me and
You Care

Look in my eyes
Love won't be denied
Oh, my darlin' just Love me, feel me, hold me
Touch me now, baby, now

Ooah ooh, baby, right now
ad lib
And so good to know that you love me and you care
