Anne-Marie, No Rain No Flowers

I know sometimes it feels like nothing's going right I know it feels everyone is putting up a fight Just no tomorrow, everything can change over night When there's bad, there's good Listen as I write, yo

What good is the paper without the pen What good is the music without the instrument What good is a car without tires Like a cigarette trying light without fire, yo

I said it before, said it before But I'll say it again As you close one door One opens for new thins to begin

You can't start something new With something coming to an end I said it before, said it before But I'll say it again

No rain, no flowers No time, no hours No, no, no No up, no downs No, no, no, no, no No sweet, no sour No rain, no flowers
