

Annie Haslam, Shine

Once I was lonely, living in dreams (Shine shine shine shine)
Found my heart open now shine on me
Into my open heart like the sun shines Into my open soul like the sun shines
A shaft of light through a now open door
You so beguiling, smiling at me (Shine shine shine shine)
Smiling and tender soft the breeze
Into my open heart like the sun shines
Into my open soul like the sun shines
A shaft of light through a now open door (Shine shine shine shine)
I hear you whisper, gentle and free (Shine shine shine shine)
Laughing and loving, shining from me (Shine)
