

Anouk, Three Days In A Row

Ive been loving you
Without you even knowing
Ill never forget those days
Three days in a row
You were mine alone
And I havent seen you since that day
Im sorry baby
Baby boy when I saw you the first time
I knew right away that you and I
Were connected in a way
I believed that there was way something more
That I could ever express in my own words
I just knew at the time
I belonged to you but it all felt so wrong
To do the things that my heart gave in
Baby Im telling you
Ive been loving you
Without you even knowing
Ill never forget those days
Three days in a row
You were mine alone
And I havent seen you since that day
Im sorry babe
