

Antigama, Used To

there used to be the days when standing proud
you'd seen the aim
the moments
no one will take away
without hesitation
into every head

you used to spew the lies
surprised by the torments
the others had

you understood nothing
but enjoyed watching
you understood nothing

why didn't you want
to feel a thing?
you sure had a chance
to do something

every head

you understood nothing
