

Anya Marina, Anya Marina "Satellite Heart"

So pretty, so smart
Such a waste of her young heart
What a pity
What a sham
What's the matter with your man ?
Don't you see it's wrong ?
Can't you get it right ?
Out of mind and out of sight
Call on all your girls
Don't forget the boys
Put a lid on all that noise
I'm a satellite heart
Lost in the dark
I'm spun out so far
You stop I start
But I'll be true to you
I hear you've living out of state
Running in a whole new scene
You know I haven't slept in weeks
You've the only thing I see
I'm a satellite heart
Lost in the dark
I'm spun out so far
You stop I start
But I'll be true to you
I'm a satellite heart
Lost in the dark
I'm spun out so far
You stop I start
But I'll be true to you
No matter what you do
Yeah, I'll be true to you
