

Appleton, Sugarman

and even on this day, I'll still remember the girl who wasn't there is she now lost forever?

[chorus]

as she cries in in my head and drowns out, every laughter so I'll turn turn her cries over and leave before another lifetime

I can see you clearly now twisted faces you smile remind me younger friend how we used to see the world, bring back the happiness of innocence little girl

sugar sugar man, are you coming around? sugar sugar man, take me to another land where the floor is sand, and the see is grass
