

Apulanta, Mit

"Hey, hey, how are you?"
You ask and everything's ok
Well, it's easy for you to say,
When you don't know how I feel

[chorus]

I am so happy, because I saw you somewhere
On Tv or in the street on your way somewhere
Happy people walk hand in hand, smiling
Many places are calling for me, I don't belong anywhere

[chorus]

I painted you on my wall while waiting just for you
You look down on me like I was mental
You probably find it funny, at least I think so
When I'm halfway to somewhere, I always get lost
