

Arab Strap, Love Detective

We slept in this morning and she had to get ready in a hurry - no time for her usual attention to detail.
It's one of those wee red cashbox things and she keeps it in a drawer by the bed, under some pictures.
There were these pictures of friends and ex's, letters, postcards, doodles, nothing bad - and then I found
And it got worse as it went on. The dates never made sense, there were people I had never even heard of.
