

Arch Enemy, As The Pages Burn

As the pages burn
secrets can't be unlearned silence can't be unheard... knowledge is burden, power is onus,
as the pages burn!
Your memories fade!
Freed from the grip of reality
Rejecting Cognition
as the pages turn.
Sinking in a pool of ether
The past is washed clean!
Rip apart the world!
word by word...
inch by inch..
sever your timeline
Silence your conscience!
Sweet amnesia, here to free you!
As The Pages Burn
All your trials, solved by fire...
As the pages...burn!
As smoke fills the room
soon to pass...heavy gloom
The wind will whisk away the past a blank page stares at you.
Nothing left...where to start?
A second chance carries expectation.
The book you'd written no longer exist!
The future is in your pen ink to paper now begin!
Rip apart the world
word by word
inch by inch
sever your timeline
Silence your conscience.
Sweet amnesia...here to free you
As The Pages Burn
All your trials
Solved by fire.
As the pages burn!
Rewriting history...starting now!
Erase the misery
Let the flames, eat your doubts.
Sweet amnesia...here to free you.
As the pages burn!
All your trials...solved by fire
As The Pages Burn
