

Arch Enemy, Revolutions begins

Since the day that you were born the wheels are in motion
Turning ever faster - Play your part in the big machine
The stage is set, the road is chosen
Your fate preordained
We are watching you - every step of the way
Never too late to stand your ground - Revolution begins
In you - In me - Revolution!
Once lost - lost in their game
Mental chains breaking now
Set yourself free
Who are they to tell you what to do?
The stage is not set, the road is not chosen
Your fate not preordained
They are losing control - every step of your way
Never too late to stand your ground - Revolution begins
In you - In me - Revolution!
Lead - Michael Amott
Harmony - Michael & Christopher Amott
Never too late to stand your ground - Revolution begins
In you - In me - This is revolution!
