

Architecture In Helsinki, That Beep - Radioclit's F

C- Can you wake up
Boy it ain't long 'til the warning arrives
And it's this shake up
That's got me waiting for your dynamite
I never knew your middle name
No need to play that game
I called your doctor up and he promised me pain was fun
Tried a little bit of moving on
It lasted way too long
Dressed up as bubblegum
I'm stuck to your shoe, let's run
Can you give me that

[Spanish]

Did they mistake us,
For and 8 that's turning into a 9
Said If i play the evil lover can i trade you for your Alibi?
Done living like a runaway
Break those hearts so carefully
Done living like a runaway
Every time that I turn around
I let you down. You read my mind...
(Bring the beep back)
