Please won't you get out of my way
Time limits what I do
You're feeling different today
I wish that I would change for you

Please move out of my way
You're so beautiful to me
All these pictures in this room
No pictures of you and me

And I long to have you here
And I long to have you near
I'm alone without you here
And I long to feel you near
