

Archive, Shouting Within

Give me a second now
The Times They Are A-Changin' now *
Existence is different now

Rising and falling down
Hating adoring now
People seem desperate somehow

Coming so numb
Blind deaf and dumb
To it all

I'm constantly high
The light from the sun
I'm constantly low
The damage it's done

It's not making sense to me
Shouting within

I need a moment here
Something to make it clear
Cut through this atmosphere

There's always a crowd around
Shouting so quiet and loud
People seem desperate somehow

Coming so numb
Blind deaf and numb
To it all

I'm constantly high
The light from the sun
I'm constantly low
The damage it's done

I am constantly fallinf
I canstantly rise
It all feels so empty /3x
Shouting within /2x
