Arctic Monkeys, You're So Dark

You got your H.P. Lovecraft Your Edgar Allan Poe You got your unkind of ravens And your murder of crows Catty eyelashes and your Dracula cape Been flashing triple A passes At the cemetery gates

Cause you're so dark, babe But I want you hard You're so dark, babe You're so dark You're so dark You're so dark

And you're so mysterious
Got that obsession with death
I saw you driving your Prius
And even that was Munster Koach-esque
You watch Italian horror and you listen to the scores
Leather-clad and spike collar
I want you down on all fours

Cause you're so dark, babe But I want you hard You're so dark, baby

I know you're nothing like mine Cause she's walking on sunshine And your love would tear us apart And I know I'm not your type Cause I don't shun the daylight But baby I'm willing to start

You're so dark

Got your H.P. Lovecraft Your Edgar Allen Poe Got your unkind of ravens Got your murder of crows

You're so dark, babe But I want you hard You're so dark, baby But I want you hard You're so dark, oh But I want you hard You're so dark, baby
