Arcwelder, Criminal

(music arcwelder/words s. macdonald)
I have this dream involving you and me
It grows then fades changing every day
Fine tune it then it fades out again
Feel like I'm a criminal
[Chorus]
Could it be - you don't try to understand
Now could it be - you should lead and not command
Now could it be - I won't give in to your demands
Feel like I'm a criminal

Am I that dense - you tell me "no offense" Then criticize right between the eyes Black dirt white grain - ideas wash down the drain Step back away - listen to what you say It's got to go and I think you should know Feel like I'm a criminal

[Chorus]
