

Area-7, JJ

Well i dont see you everyday i count the hours that im away i wish that you were here by me coz this aint the way that its supposed to be another show, another place a picture of you, a smiling face, a broken heart that you will never see

lies are told, angry words are said, when im with you baby i dont care right here for you i will always be coz this aint the way its supposed to be this aint the way that its supposed to be

cant stand, i gotta have you close to me

when i look at you and i see me, i see you, your all i thought you'd be how you make me feel i still cannot beleive

and so i call you on the phone, another tour, im far away from home i wish that you could be here by me coz this aint the way that its supposed to be
