

Ariana Grande, Be Alright

[Verse 1]

Midnight shadows
When finding love is a battle
But daylight is so close
So don't you worry 'bout a thing

[Chorus]

We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright

[Refrain]

Baby don't you know
All of them tears gon' come and go
Baby you just gotta make up your mind
That every little thing is gonna be alright
Baby don't you know
All of them tears gon' come and go
Baby you just gotta make up your mind
We decide it

[Chorus]

We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright

[Verse 2]

In slow motion
Can't seem to get where we're going
But the hard times are golden
Cause they all lead to better days

[Chorus]

We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright

[Refrain]

Baby don't you know
All of them tears gon' come and go
Baby you just gotta make up your mind
That every little thing is gonna be alright
Baby don't you know
All of them tears gon' come and go
Baby you just gotta make up your mind
We decide it

[Chorus]

We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright, ooh baby
We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright
