

Ariana Grande, Helen's Back

Bright smile that always glows
Pearly whites with a button nose.
And I know, everyone is gonna love me now.

A life on a stage is a nail on the head
It's better than fixing a roof but instead,
It's probably packed, and they're probably singing along.

Oh, what a girl. What is she singing? This is my song.

I'm the biggest bang with the mostest zing.
If you're the hand I'm the diamond ring.
By the way, I'm here for the song and the dance.
