Arid, Why Do You Run

Why do you run From me My life has become Lonely Cold water trails Surround me When all that I?ve feared Has found me Maybe I?ll never know Maybe I just can't see Maybe all I want is right In front of me Feel my time is running out Baby I want you to know One day I will get it right Till then I hold my own Why do you run From me My life has become Lonely Maybe I?ll never know Maybe I just can't see I just can't afford This happening To me Feel my time is running out Baby I want you to know One day I will get it right Till then I hold my own Feel this time it's coming down Baby I want you to know One day I will get it right Till then I hold my own One last time we Go Away we go Feel my time is running out Baby I want you to know One day I will get it right Till then I hold my own Feel this town it's coming round Baby I want you to know One day I will get it right Till then I hold my own Why do you run From me My life has become

Lonely
