

Armin Van Buuren, Strong Ones (ft. Cimo Fränke)

I've been calling
I've got endless reasons
Wait now
Hold on
Do you still believe we run straight through fire
But we can do better
We can do better
Say for last time
We can do better
Cause we can do better
We can do better
Cause all that we need
Is a second to hold on
Cause we are the strong ones
All that we need
Is a reason to fight on
Cause we are the strong ones
Yeah we are the strong ones
We are the strong ones /4x

Don't think
Dont speak
Let's just sit in silence
Every heart beat
Makes it feel just like we
Run straight through fire
But we can do better
We can do better
Say for last time
We can do better
Cause we can do better
Cause all that we need
Is a second to hold on
Cause we are the strong ones
All that we need
Is a reason to fight on
Cause we are the strong ones
We are the strong ones
We are the strong ones
Is a reason to fight on
Cause we are the strong ones
We are the strong ones
We are the strong ones
