Used to play that honky tonk
And i bet you won't forget
The way she bet that the drunk dunk
I am feeling so alone
So won't you take me home
And let me blow that big trombone

blow that big trombone

get my brand with pair of shoes got my gin and got my jounce i am let you

i'ma make you momma lose
I am feeling so alone
So won't you take me home
And let me blow that big trombone

while the trees by the sea are soound asleep and the men by the piano;s feeling lonely e's begging
