

As Fast As, Special

Woman seeking man
Who's interested in dating
Who enjoys the beach and skating
Must have good intentions
Please no drunks or smokers
Have a job and did I mention?

That I am very down to earth in all the things I've mentioned
So if you think you can hang with me, then I can make exceptions

Cause I want someone special
So special
I can tell eventually that you and I are meant to be special
So special
I think you'll be worth it, as long as you are perfect

Man seeking woman
Who doesn't mind the Harley
Loves The Beatles and Bob Marley
Lonely sugar daddy
A fit and happy Libra
If you're fun I'd love to meet you

Cause you seem very down to earth in all the things you've mentioned
So if I think I can hang with you, I hope you'll make exceptions

Cause I want someone special
So special
I can tell eventually that you and I are meant to be special
So special
I think you'll be worth it, as long as you are perfect, hey

Mustn't try to harm me, call me names or join the Army
You a liar or a cheater?
You a slob, or something neater?
Sparks may turn to flames and I'm not one for games
So will I ever find just who I'm looking for?

You better be special
So special
I can tell eventually that you and I are meant to be special
So special
I know that you'll be worth it, cause you are just so perfectly special
So special
So special
So special
So special
