

Aselin Debison, The Dance You Choose

Come on everybody all across the land
Come on everybody it is time to dance
To the music I am playing
The message I'm conveying
Cause everything is flowing from my heart
Come on everybody bring your dancing shoes,
If you'd like to listen I've a song for you
Let's kick up a commotion
From my side of the ocean
For I have got a notion to
Dance to the fiddles in the rhythm of the reels
Dance to the life and the love that you feel
Dance to the song of the one that you love
So true
Oh, life is in the dance you choose
Dance to the fiddles in the rhythm of the reels
Dance to the life and the love that you feel
Dance to the song of the one that you love
So true
Oh, life is in the dance you choose
I will bring to you the sweetest blossom
Bearing precious melody and all
When it's time to dance we far too often
Get wrapped up in the worry of the fall
And I will catch you
Come on everybody all across the land
Come on everybody it is time to dance
Let's keep the rhythm steady
Let's lift the heart that's heavy
