Asia, Enough's Enough

(Downes/Payne)

So early in the morning It's the same now every day Sign your name and number Cutting from the ball and chain

Never letting go when The weight was so deceiving Treading on a turning wheel

Machinery is screaming Shoulder to the stone again Praying for the evening Hiding as the fist hits steel

[Chorus:]
Enough's enough
It's eye to eye
Enough's enough
We cry
Enough's enough
Of smoke and steel
Enough's enough
Of turning this wheel

Looking at his picture Steel did turn the skin to bone Father I remember The hands that had to break the stone

[Chorus]
