

Aslan, Please Dont Stop

I'm stumbling down that street I'm out of place
And I'm an angry man a voice without a face
Help me up
My feet won't touch the ground
I wish you had time to talk
But your hours just fade away
I wish you had time
To wait another lonely day
See the path becoming clear
And you'll see you're never near

Climb to the top and shout out loud
You're never stepping nowhere with
Your head stuck in the clouds
Climb to the top and shout out loud
'Cos you're never stepping nowhere
'till you're stepping out of the crowd

Well I'm hungry now and I'm lashing out
I'm breaking every rule
Night and day take my breath away
But there's still so much to do

Wish I had time to talk
But hours just fade away
Wish I had time
To wait another lonely day
See the past becoming clear

...Stepping out of the crowd...
...Stepping out of the crowd...
See me stop, see me jumping

See the past becoming clear
See you know you're never near

Please don't stop
Please don't go
Please don't stop
Please don't go
'Cos you're never stepping nowhere
'till you're stepping out of the crowd
