

ATB, Let You Go

I've been to all the familiar places
I've been running like a sentence
Never begun
I've been looking for a way to let you know
I got nothing left to fill the spaces
I got nothing but a center coming undone
I've been doing circles and it shows
Every cloud in the sky
Every place that I hide
Tell me that I,
I was wrong to let u go
Every sounds that I hear
Every thoughts that I feel
Tell me that I,
I was wrong I was wrong to let u go
Let u go, Let u go, Let u go
Its the little things that make you crazy
Like the thought of someone touching your skin
I can see you everywhere i go
You could fill a silent sea of faces
It could be the aroma of a glimpse
Swimming the river as it flows
Every cloud in the sky
Every place that I hide
Tell me that I,
I was wrong to let u go
Every sounds that I hear
Every thoughts that I feel
Tell me that I,
I was wrong to let u go
Let u go let u go let u go
