

ATB, Ruby

Ruby waits a while before she stays
Never looking back
'till he's miles away
Keeps her reputation like a stone
She's not really tired
She's just overgrown

She says hey
I could be wrong
but at least I'm breathing Hey we could go anywhere but down
She says hey
let me be you and I'll fall down screaming Everything's a miracle
when you've got you're fist under ground

Ruby never says what side she's on She lives in the shade of unfinished zones
She has got a photographic soul Everyone she meets in a fractured home

Ruby likes the style of people's clothes
no one ever knows when she'll go she's got reservations with a ghost she's not looking back she's just growin' old

Ruby waits a while
before she stays
Never looking back
'till he's miles away
Keeps her reputation like a stone
She's not really tired
She's just overgrown
