

ATB, Swept away

I dont know what you mean to me
I dont even know what it takes
To begin to conceal this break
In a world I know so well
Get away for the next one
All alone in this single town
Ever dearly Im still around
With my feet still on the ground
Everything that you mean to me
Is tangled up in a broken dream
And I keep hoping that this sorrow
Will get swept away
Im alone in a symphony
Im a ride in a shiny maze
And I keep hoping that this sorrow
Will get swept away
Yeah I keep hoping that the sorrow
Will get lost and swept away
Hope this will get swept away
Hope this will get lost and swept away
Hope this will get swept away
Hope this will get lost and swept away
