

Atmosphere, The Skinny

this is for all those tricks and hoes from the five start rooms down to skid row whether you answer phones or dance on poles big money escort or broke on a stroll he don't care about your background he ain't picky once he puts his mack down make you suck it all the way to the ass now cause all of y'all heifers are cash cows at first it was just a little thing had no idea he was fuckin' with your brains when he was around you seemed mature he helped you calm down and feel secure sure he go get 'em when they still just kids give 'em some gifts and get on they lips before they can even get a chance to get hip skinny pimp turn a john into a trick real quick fly trick light it gonna pay all day but wont ever get away from skinny white pimp i know it feel like you can't live without 'em and you're still too embarrassed to tell your parents about 'em it's kinda crazy how he's on your mouth every time you need a little bit of help-you-out ain't no kitten gonna play that shark shake you down make his mark take you down break your heart and don't give a damn for anything that came apart some try anything to leave him seen some even put themselves in treatment some get away but still gotta keep lookin' over their shoulder forever that ain't freedom take his tax makes you love it same old trap but ain't you above it? he'll beat your ass in public now suck that skinny white pimp dick suck it fly trick light it gonna pay all day
first thing you wake up to your pimp don't forget to pay up to your pimp get that money give it here he'll keep a bitch in that stable fore fifty years he ain't scared of the law or the cops got 'em paid off some kinda trade off gonna stay in the pocket as long as the money stay long open hand stay strong it's like you don't know or care but he's right there in your clothes and your hair you're known to let him in your home i can smell his breath on this microphone your lips taste like his dick i can always tell when he's been in your whip you just one of a million trick now take your ass outside and go talk to your pimp
but wont ever get away from skinny white pimp hey baby i need to change on top of that i need to keep the change motherfuckers put a filter on my brain all the cigarettes of the world get together and sing
