

Atreyu, Never Too Far Gone

Sometimes things turnout the wrong way you gotta stay strong, you gotta move on the hardest lessons are teh ones that keep you stunned and speechless i fell the pain

i feel the hurt
i fell depression
i live in my strength

remember that your best friend is the strength in your heart the fire in your soul and the love in your eyes though its been said many times before by smarter people with larger minds than mine love in your heart love in your heart will conquer all.
