

Auburn, Late At Night

Uh...

Uh...

Uh...

Uh...

Uh...

Uh...

Uh...

Late at night

I toss and turn cause boy you on my mind mind

I get so weak it's so hard to explain

Why can't the guys who only play these games, lames

Now look at this

From 10 to 1 I love my calls you missed, pissed

I shoulda known that things would get this bad

But boy you know I'll never finish last, last

Cause late at night

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He'll be alone all through the day n' night

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at at his night

Late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He's all alone cause things they never change

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at at his night

I'm on the phone, you blow me up and won't leave me alone-lone

I gave my all but chu threw it away

So ou could just lay in this bed you made-made

Now look please

I'm tryna tell you get your ish and leave leave

Now it's too late cause I was there for you and all my feelings that I had are through-through

Cause late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He'll be alone all through the day n' night

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at his night

Cause late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He's all alone cause things they never change

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at his night

Boy you know, I'm movin' on and actin' brand new-new

You're all alone and now you're feelin' blue

I met a guy and yo he's supa coo coo

The homeys right, cause see before we always used to fight-fight

We're better off just like this anyway, so no mo cryin' when ya

See no mo cryin' when ya, so no mo cryin' when ya

Late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He'll be alone all through the day n' night

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at his night

Cause late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He's all alone cause things they never change,

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at his night

Cause late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He'll be alone all through the day and night

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at his night

Cause late at night, the lonely stoner will get put out late at night

He's all alone cause things they never change

The lonely stoner will get put out late at night

At at his night

There's stars by the parts I'm not sure about but the majority of it is right
