

Audio Karate, Jason

And its hard to say youre sorry when theres nothin wrong and you dont wanna talk about this somethings on your mind you cry and point the finger but you wont let this linger cant take this anymore

shock my systems with charisma leave you breaking in my waste lost my faith, ive lost my faith ive lost my crucial time and place its hard to say your sorry when theres nothin wrong and you dont wanna talk about this you will understand that you will never need me so why dont you just leave and let me be the one to takes the fall

lost my faith, ive lost my faith
ive lost my crucial time and place
