

Aurosonic Feat. Marcie & Morphing Shadows, Ocean Wave

if i lie on the beach tonight, will you come to me in the heat of the summer night, will you lay with me if im kissing your lips tonight, in a midnight breeze will you lay with me
all night?

if i lie in your arms tonight, by impassioned sea if the waves swell to the sky, would you dive in with me and if the tide should reach our sides would you sail with me?

ill pour the honey on the sands of time and do you feel the way im touching you tonight and well be swept away in salty water cries ill let the ocean make you mine

do you feel the waves on your skin isnt this a nice place to begin
