

Auryn, Last Night On Earth

I'm so late and I can't believe,
it's another night on the run.

Is there anyone who wants to enjoy the road till the madness dawn?

I will find the way to feel free
and play as a child.

Maybe all the thoughts that you have
in your mind, are burning.
Don't remain in the trunk of the past.
It's time to run!

I'm ready to jump the fence
begging to start, once again.
No matter what they say,
I'm gonna be myself.

Singing for all night long,
I would never be on my own.
There's no more time to spare
Cause this could be my last night on Earth.

Doors are closed, but you have the reason to open now all, but...

What the hell? You're still on your feet and there's just one way to the key.

Go and live the way that you want,
this is your last moment.
Ready, steady, go! Spread the word.
It's time to run!

I'm ready to jump the fence
begging to start, once again.
No matter what they say,
I'm gonna be myself.

Singing for all night long,
I would never be on my own.
There's no more time to spare
Cause this could be my last night on Earth.
