

Austin Mahone, Shadow

You walk into the room
So perfect but unaware
Making you stop and stare
Everytime I heard he broke your heart
Can I just fix you girl?
Show you a different world
I take you anywhere
I push you on a throne
I lay down my heart I swear
And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone

Only my shadow knows
How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
Where I dream of you and me
Should I go or wait
Is it too soon too late
Only my shadow knows

I've been loving you so long
And now that I got the change
I see you need to dance on your own
So I wait another day
Maybe another year I'm gonna be right here

I take you anywhere
I push you on a throne
I lay down my heart I swear
And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone

Only my shadow knows
How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
Where I dream of you and me
Should I go or wait
Is it too soon too late
Only my shadow knows

I wish I could say all these words
All these things that your heart never heard
But I say a pain in your eye and it's in my lips

Only my shadow knows
How I feel about you
Only my shadow goes
Where I dream of you and me
Should I go or wait
Is it too soon too late
Only my shadow knows
