

Austin Mahone, Someone Like You

Feels like I'm lost in the ocean just driftin'
Drownin' from the weight of my thoughts
Like I just don't know who I am, like I just don't know
Who I want to be in a desperate world

Don't even know what I'm doin'
And if I'm goin' down the
Right road, it's gonna lead me to my dreams
It's gonna take me to a place I never thought I'd be

I don't wanna be good
I just wanna be greatest, wanna be
The best that I can be

I just wanna be the best thing then settle for
Less, full of places in the world
I'd rather see, then never see

Someone Like You uh,
Someone Like You uh,
Cause you wrap me up in love

I can see outside to change
I can face the world as long as
I know that you're next to me

Someone Like You uh,
Someone Like You uh,
Any room that you walk into

Becomes such a better place
And I can see what I'd be missin'
If what I would always need
Someone Like You

Feels like I'm stuck in the middle of nowhere
Don't know which direction to run
I pray I choose the right one
Cause if I do then I'll be one
Step closer to what I want

And everytime I think about
What I dream of at night
All that I could see is you

Told me that you want me too
I just wish that it was true
I could see one day we'll be on top
Just me and you

Cause I don't wanna be good
I just wanna be greatest, wanna be
The best that I can be

I just wanna be the best thing then settle for
Less, full of places in the world
I'd rather see, then never see

Someone Like You uh,
Someone Like You uh,
Cause you wrap me up in love

And I can see outside to change
I can face the world as long as

I know that you're next to me

Someone Like You uh,
Someone Like You uh,
Any room that you walk into

Becomes such a better place
And I can see what I'd be missin'
If what I would always need
Someone Like You

Everybody's watchin' every move
We make, and everybody's
Talkin', let them say what they gon' say

Cause they hatin' on me
Lying on you, the only thing
True is the two of us

Someone Like You uh,
Someone Like You uh,
Cause you wrap me up in love

And I can see outside to change
I can face the world as long as
I know that you're next to me

Someone Like You uh,
Someone Like You uh,
Any room that you walk into

Becomes such a better place
And I can see what I'd be missin'
If what I would always need
Someone Like You
