

Aventura, You're Crying (Lloras English Remix)

Lloras (English Remix "You're Crying")

The years have gone by, and we have grown up so fast
And how mommy and daddy were always on our backs
No matter what you always looked out for me
And I love you but I know that you ain't happy Another blow to the face its almost everyday just like always another excuse you give to me That he loves you so much, but he's the one I don't trust when I ask, you take to the head to much Your are my family and my goal is to save you so I pray for you

Lil girl he doesnt love you truly he 20 otha girls but its you he's abusing what don't you see?
he mistreats you and later you defend him don't pay him any mind, don't give in what don't you see?

(Chorus)
(You're Crying) everytime he hits you (You're Crying) do what you have to do (You're Crying) and I can still feel four fear (You're Crying) your hands are feeble and weak (You're Crying) that aint the love that you need (You're Crying) He's the one that caused that bruise (You're Crying) When he spits in your face (You're Crying) he's just a waste (You're Crying) I guess he feels superior That bastard is a dog Thats why I sing this song to show you I really love you

He's not worthy of how much you love him Just know that you could always leave him do you see?

Ladies keep ya head up... c'mon holla back

My nefews shouldn't see their mother running in fear
You sleep with a monster I know you don't wanna hear Go ahead and count the very few good times then go and count all the years he has made you cry

I don't wanna see my little sister crying over that stupid prick nothing good of him ever existed don't know how you can still kiss him
what don't you see?
I see only fear there is no respect because everytime I see you

(You're Crying) when he comes home (You're Crying) like a drunken dog (You're Crying) he slaps you for nothig (You're Crying) the kids come home (You're Crying) and they scream "Daddy No!"
(You're Crying) please don't hit mommy again (You're Crying) You're too good for him, I (You're Crying) only see him telling you lies (You're Crying) Cuz he has a heart of stone

He really should change

cuz payback is a bitch when I put him in his place
