

Avi Kaplan, First Place I Go

The first place I go
The last thing I needed
Thousand pound stone
Troubles I'm feeling
When my eyes have closed
To right when they open
My mind's on the go
And I'm laying here hopin'
That I can find my way
Back to the light
It's for me to say
No you won't decide
Cause I'm going to leave you out in the cold
I'm gonna to pray that door stays closed
Cause I've spent enough time with you to know
The last thing I need is
The first place I'll go
It's the first place I go
The first place I go
When I'm trying to hide away
To be left alone
But you always find me
Shoutin' in my ear
Runnin' round my brain
I don't wanna hear
What you have to say
Cause I'm going to leave you out in the cold
I'm gonna to pray that door stays closed
Cause I've spent enough time with you to know
The last thing I need is
The first place I'll go
It's the first place I go
Don't make me tell you one more time
Close your mouth don't speak those lies
Leave me be, I'm too tired to fight
Won't you let me go
I'm tryin'
I'm tryin'
I'm tryin' to get it right
Cause I'm going to leave you out in the cold
I'm gonna to pray that door stays closed
Cause I've spent enough time with you to know
The last thing I need is
The first place I'll go
Yeah the last thing I need is
The first place I'll go
It's the first place I go
The first place I go
The first place I go
The first place I go (yeah, yeah)
The first place I
The first place I go (yeah)
The first place I
The first place I go (yeah)
The first place I go
The first place I go
The first place I go
The first place I go
