

Avi Kaplan, Healing

House on fire but there's no one home
Cloud of smoke and we've all moved on
I've heard it said there's a reason why
That I just can't find
But I have to try

Saw a man with his head in his hands
Tattered heart and his soul in the sand
I couldn't give him reasons
I couldn't tell him why

Even if I tried
Even if I tried

But there's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing

Had a love but they had enough
Gave it all but they gave it up
There's gonna be a time that it turns out fine
But it ain't tonight
And that's alright

Cause there's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
There's a healing
